

THE MONEY MARKET.

Table of stock exchange prices including 100 STOCK EXCHANGE—FIRST CALL, ALBANY AND TROY DAY LINE, and various other market data.

WEDNESDAY, Oct. 20—P. M. Gold opened at 120 1/2, and closed at 120 3/4.

Government bonds opened strong, but the large offerings at the Government sale had a depressing effect, and prices reacted from 1/2 cent, but at the last call prices were strong, and the market closed at a profit.

The following were the awards: Chase & Higgins, $50,000; B. F. & Co., $25,000; J. & W. Seligman & Co., $25,000; etc.

State bonds were strong on Tennessee 6 per cent. The old bonds advanced to 84, and the new to 85. Virginia 4 per cent, ex Coupon, sold at 50; North Carolina 4 per cent, 50; New bonds, 3 1/2; Special Tax bonds, 4 1/2.

Railway shares were buoyant in sympathy with the active speculative movement in the Vanderbilt stocks, which continued to be the center of interest to investors.

LITERARY ITEMS. A sermon on "The Vatican Council" preached at the R. C. Church of St. Paul the Apostle in the city on the 17th inst. by the Rev. Father Hecker, will shortly be published by the Catholic Publication Society.

Messrs. Leypoldt and Holt will publish, in a few days, Prof. Raphael Pumpelly's narrative, entitled "Across America and Asia," containing an account of his five years' journey across the continent, from the Pacific to the Atlantic, and back to the Pacific, during the earlier days, and went from the China and Japan.

The first edition of the new English periodical, "The Academy," was exhausted so soon that the supplies ordered by American dealers could not be furnished, and only a few copies consequently reached New York. A second edition is printing and will be received by Brennan next week.

Few persons are aware how many translations of foreign works are offered to publishers. Messrs. Leypoldt and Holt are offered to issue a printed form of refusal to aspiring translators, in which they state that not one translation out of twenty that are made is ever published, and not one out of twenty that are published ever pays more than its cost.

Miss Harriet Martineau, in writing to the American publishers of her volume on Biographical Sketches, expresses herself as greatly delighted with the time which some of her critics have taken. One of her reviewers stated that he had investigated the life of the author in regard to which she says: "It is an odd occasion to invent for me, as I have been deaf from childhood, I have never taught anything except through the press."

A curious book, entitled "Notes of a Spy," was lately published at St. Petersburg. The author is the memoirs of a Russian sub-officer who acted as a spy for the government during the last Polish insurrection. Having lived for ten years in Poland, he had completely mastered the language, and was able to obtain the confidence of several of the insurgent leaders, whom he afterwards betrayed to the government.
